MEDICINAL.

Collapse is Coming soon or late, when the stomach and digestive and nutritive system begin to fail. It must be so. Food is the body's life. But food must be digested, before it can nourish the body. It is not what we eat but what we digest that feeds us. Don't neglect the first warnings of stomach trouble. The timely use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is a medicine for the cure of diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition will in ninety-eight cases out of a hundred result in a permanent cure. The percentage of cures is based on actual figures and facts, recorded in the treatment of hundreds of thousands of sick people. The "Discovery" always helps. It almost always cures.

"I was troubled with indigestion for about two years," writes Wm. Bowker, Esq., of Julietta, La. Co., Idaho. "I tried different doctors and remedies but to no avail, until I wrote to you and you told me what to do. I suffered with a pain in my stomach and left side and thought that it would kill me. Now I am all right. I can do my work without complaint. I don't have that tired feeling that I used to have. Five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and two boxes of his 'Pleasant Pellets' cured me."

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing 1008 pages, and over 700 illustrations is sent free, on receipt of stamps to cover expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for expense of mailing cloth bound volume as shown above, or 21 stamps for the same book in paper covers. Address Doctor R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ELECTRICITY FROM COAL.

Hugo Jones, an assistant city chemist of Chicago, considers that he has solved the problem of procuring electricity direct from coal, which for years has been the dream of electricians and chemists. He has taken out a patent on a battery which he thinks will revolutionize modern methods of procuring power, and which will make fuel Edison's labor for the last few years in trying to solve the problem. The claim is made for Mr. Jones's battery that it will yield 85 per cent of the energy that is stored up in coal, or four times as much as the present combination of boiler, steam engine and dynamo.

If Mr. Jones's invention can reduce the loss from 80 and 90 per cent to 65 per cent the result would be further improvement and a revolution in manufacture such as has not been experienced since the invention of the steam engine. Sulphate of lead instead of sulphate of zinc is used in the new battery. The substitution saves one costly step in the process of getting out the energy of the coal, and also saves entirely a chemical product. In the Jones battery coal is mixed with sulphate of lead in a reduction retort, and the mixture is heated. The coal converts the sulphate into lead and sulphur dioxide, which produces the electric current, and then again forms sulphate of lead. This process is capable of being continued indefinitely, the only thing consumed being the coal. The lead sulphate, being insoluble, drops to the bottom of the battery and accumulates. It can easily be removed bodily, but may remain at the bottom for a long time. The battery can't be kept running, while an ordinary battery stops as soon as the acid liquid has taken up too much metal. In the Jones battery the liquid never becomes saturated. The battery and the reduction retort are in the new device placed together, the battery cells being set around the retort. In this way the heat given off by the retort is taken up by the cells and utilized, being partly converted into electricity by means of chemical reactions. In the ordinary battery, sulphate of zinc instead of sulphate of lead, is mixed with the coal. When the mixture is heated the zinc sulphate is separated into zinc and sulphur dioxide. The sulphur dioxide is lost in the process, and along with it energy which could be otherwise transformed into electricity. Mr. Jones's substitution of lead saves the sulphur dioxide.

Another advantage in the use of lead sulphate is the fact that this sulphate is decomposed by coal at a lower temperature and more easily. The placing of the cells around the retort is another feature of Mr. Jones's battery which differs from the ordinary zinc battery, and saves much energy. The new battery may be compared to a furnace using coal, but giving off electricity instead of heat. Nothing is consumed except coal and the oxygen of the air. The lead is easily recovered as sulphate and used over again. The work is done by the coal.

GERMANY'S INDUSTRIAL SITUATION.

In discussing the industrial situation in Germany Henry W. Diederich, U. S. Consul at Bremen, in a report made public by the State department yesterday, says that in almost every branch of German industry many laboring men, especially those with families, barely succeed in keeping body and soul together, while the monthly reports as to the men who are idle and seeking employment are alarming. In addition to all this Germany must be prepared to harvest the poorest crops it has had in many a year. The business conditions generally in Germany, Consul Diederich says, begin to be very much as they were in the United States from 1893 to 1897. Should they continue much longer it is to be feared that the falling prices, reduced wages, and accumulation of stock will seriously affect our trade with Germany.

Kodol

Digests what you Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

A powerful engine can't be run with a weak boiler; and you can't expect to keep up the wear and strain of an active life with a weak stomach. Our boilers, or rather our stomachs, can't be replaced, and we cannot stop the human machinery while making repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digest enough food to keep the body strong, we can use such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat, so that you can eat all the good food you want, without any distress after eating.

"After forty years of suffering from indigestion, a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me."—Amel Bell, Frederic, Pa.

It can't help but do you good

Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The 50c bottle contains 2 1/2 times the 25c size.

When you need a soothing and healing application for piles, sores and skin diseases, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Cure for Cholera Infantum—Never Known to Fail.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—MRS. CURTIS BAKER, Rockwell, Ohio. For sale by Richard Gibson.

You can never cure dyspepsia by dieting.

What your body needs is plenty of good food properly digested. Then if your stomach will not digest it, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will. It contains all the natural digestants hence must digest every class of food and to prepare it that nature can use it in nourishing the body and replacing the wasted tissues, thus giving life, health, strength, ambition, pure blood and good healthy appetite. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
